That's all very interesting. This will have a huge impact on other Windows PC and tablets for the moment because Windows is now essentially stuck with its existing devices: an 8-inch or 16-inch screen, a keyboard, battery, and whatever else is already installed on the device. The Surface Pro 3 in particular had an optional Surface Pen that could be used on that screen, but that hardware was removed soon after due to security concerns.

"The Sandy Hook shooting had the attention of all of us. And the media wanted to cover this story and not focus on the tragedy itself.. In Bucharest, Poroshenko will deliver a joint speech in which he will criticize the current measures, especially those which allow arms to fall into the hands of terrorists and other criminals, as well as talk of the need to strengthen political, economic and trade contacts.. On Friday, as a result of the Ukraine crisis, a total of 723 people, and an unspecified number of "civilian" have been killed and over 50 wounded and displaced by the fighting. The New Jersey Coalition to Defend the 2nd Amendment, the state's largest gun rights organization, is launching a "Truth in Gun Protection" campaign aimed at pressuring New Jersey lawmakers to protect Second Amendment rights in the wake of the Sandy Hook Elementary School massacre.. The company also stopped selling its Surface Pro 3 for 10 percent off its original sticker price—a price it said was aimed at helping the original Surface Pro owners who did not want any additional technology added to their devices. This came just one day after Microsoft confirmed that its Surface Pro 4 would ship with a 12-inch Retina display, which is a higher-resolution display than the 5.1-inch display on the previous two Surface Pro models.. In the settlement agreement Microsoft said that it "admitted" to "providing additional information on its Surface Pro 4 prior to shipping the devices." Also included in the document is a reminder that it intends to pay some of the legal fees raised in the case.

Also, Poroshenko plans a joint meeting with his Russian counterpart, Sergey Lavrov, and the European partners and will present his case to them along with a concrete idea for establishing a new system of cooperation between the two peoples and also a mechanism "to enable the lifting of this embargo, if necessary", according to this meeting schedule.. The Council also calls upon the Russian Federation to respect international law and Ukraine's territorial integrity.

Bucharest, Romania – The Romanian Foreign Minister, Iureba Vucic, on Thursday said that President Poroshenko and Russian President Vladimir Putin have reached a consensus.. Gorillaz were recently on tour promoting new record Black Emperor and the live duo of James Blake were seen at a live concert in Japan. The live video was posted on the Gorgonee Records website. After six months, a lawsuit against Microsoft's Surface Pro 4 has settled, with the Redmond giant agreeing to add an optional fingerprint sensor in the Surface Pro 3.. The initiative, spearheaded by its parent group, the State Assembly's

The dispute from 2013 took a long time to play out, however Microsoft got its way, agreeing to a compromise on October 1 that has forced the hardware company to remove the new fingerprint sensor.. The organization has raised over $30,000 for its anti-Second Amendment campaign in the past few months, despite the fact that a recent CNN/ORC International poll found that 53 percent of all adults across the country support a stronger Second Amendment.. At this point there's nothing stopping Windows from allowing for a hardware sensor that would require a touchable fingerprint reader, and in such a case, it's unclear just what the terms of the agreement entail. One possibility is that Microsoft agreed to give the Surface Pro 3 just one option of a touchable keyboard and display, while another might be a requirement for the other models.
